LWA's Annual Report

“ My worker went out of her way, did her utmost to support me. Her expertise was great! ”

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS DURING THE YEAR

LWA awarded BIG Lottery funding for the second time. The funding will provide Outreach Services in Charnwood and NW Leicestershire for another three years.

UAVA bid and won services across Leicester City, Leicestershire and Rutland.

LWA formed a consortium with local partners WALL and FreeVA to bid for contracts and improve access to services for clients.

Pilot project, Project 360, continued to exceed expectations. Research findings demonstrated highly significant positive outcomes for participants and as a result the service was put out to tender. LWA were delighted to win the tender.

“ I don't know what I would have done. It was great support, knowing that someone believed in what I was saying was happening to me. ”
